Anthony Reynoso: Born to Rope

My name is Anthony Reynoso. I live in the small town (of) Guadalupe, Arizona, with my parents. Soon (I) will have a little brother or (sister). My family often sees aunts, uncles, (and) cousins at my grandparents' ranch. There (we) celebrate holidays and birthdays together.

I (like) to play basketball and collect basketball (cards). But what I like best is (to) ride and rope Mexican Rodeo style. (I) learned how to rope when I (was) little. I still work hard to (be) good at roping. After school, my (dad) and I practice. My dad shows (me) things his father taught him. We (also) work on new things to do. (Now) we are roping experts. We like (to) go to shows and rodeos to (show) off our skill.

On Saturday, my (dad) and I are performers in a (show). We spin the rope and pass (it) to each other. We do well! (Mom) is proud. After the show, people (want) to take my picture. Then we (go) to Slide Rock to play.

My (dad) has passed the Mexican Rodeo tradition (on) to me. Now I must pass (it) on, too. I plan to start (by) teaching my new brother or sister (all) about roping.

Anthony Reynoso: Born to Rope

My name is Anthony Reynoso. I live in the small town (buy, of, in) Guadalupe, Arizona, with my parents. Soon (cousins, I, their) will have a little brother or (sister, pet, lady). My family often sees aunts, uncles, (and, teachers, during) cousins at my grandparents' ranch. There (we, small, picture) celebrate holidays and birthdays together.

I (like, went, believe) to play basketball and collect basketball (cards, jumping, game). But what I like best is (carrying, to, also) ride and rope Mexican Rodeo style. (His, Then, I) learned how to rope when I (want, my, was) little. I still work hard to (practice, be, performers) good at roping. After school, my (ropes, dad, wish) and I practice. My dad shows (when, me, how) things his father taught him. We (maybe, also, think) work on new things to do. (Then, Should, Now) we are roping experts. We like (to, sing, ride) go to shows and rodeos to (tell, displays, show) off our skill.

On Saturday, my (day, dad, dream) and I are performers in a (performing, ranch, show). We spin the rope and pass (by, them, it) to each other. We do well! (People, We, Mom) is proud. After the show, people (want, will, thank) to take my picture. Then we (dance, go, really) to Slide Rock to play.

My (mom, ability, dad) has passed the Mexican Rodeo tradition (again, on, so) to me. Now I must pass (, the, only, it) on, too. I plan to start (practicing, busy, by) teaching my new brother or sister (mom, other, all) about roping.
