Katie's Trunk tells about the family of Katie Gray at the beginning of the American Revolution. Katie's parents are Tories; they (support) the British king. Katie's family (has) lost rebel friends who are against (the) British. Her Friend Celia Warren doesn't (t) speak to her anymore.

One day, (Katie)'s father comes running to tell (his) family to get out of the (house) and hide. The rebels are coming. (Scared), they run into the woods. Katie (feels) like a trapped animal. Then she (gets) so angry that she runs back (into) the house. She doesn't want (anyone) to damage the house or the (things) in it.

Katie runs into her (parents)' room and hides in her mother's (s) wedding trunk under a pile of (clothes). She can hear footsteps and doors (slamming). She hears the rebels throwing things (on) the floor and Celia Warren's (father) telling the others to look for (money).

Katie can hardly breathe inside the (trunk). Then Mr. Warren opens the lid. (She) breathes in the fresh air. The (dresses) on top of Katie move, and (she) feels Mr. Warren's hand. Katie (wants) to scream, but she knows she (must) keep quiet. After touching her, Mr. (Warren) shouts to the others that the (Tories) are coming and that they should (leave) the house. He leaves the trunk (lid) open.

Katie comes out of the (trunk) and begins to cry. Her family (runs) inside. Her mother hugs her but (is) angry that she ran back into (the) house. Katie knows that Mr. Warren (called) the others away to keep her (safe), leaving the lid open for her (to) breathe. She believes that there is (still) some goodness in her neighbors, even (with) the war beginning.

Katie's Trunk tells about the family of Katie Gray at the beginning of the American Revolution. Katie's parents are Tories; they (wooly, support, soft) the British king. Katie's family (animal, cloud, has) lost rebel friends who are against (floor, brainy, the) British. Her Friend Celia Warren doesn't (road, accidentally, t) speak to her anymore.

One day, (Katie, river, kindly)'s father comes running to tell (frantic, his, average) family to get out of the (disgust, decorate, house) and hide. The rebels are coming. (Scared, Nose, Quickly), they run into the woods. Katie (feels, art, tightly) like a trapped animal. Then she (gets, war, system) so angry that she runs back (into, came, knowledge) the house. She doesn't want (ear, always, anyone) to damage the house or the (rice, near, things) in it.

Katie runs into her (entertain, unripe, parents)' room and hides in her mother's (field, s, impress) wedding trunk under a pile of (clothes, tired, radiate). She can hear footsteps and doors (slamming, except, employ). She hears the rebels throwing things (massive, faithfully, on) the floor and Celia Warren's (high-pitched, father, cautiously) telling the others to look for (flew, money, pin).

Katie can hardly breathe inside the (calm, hold, trunk). Then Mr. Warren opens the lid. (Water, She, Applaud) breathes in the fresh air. The (army, decide, dresses) on top of Katie move, and (warm, her, she) feels Mr. Warren's hand. Katie (wants, did, aboard) to scream, but she knows she (must, match, as) keep quiet. After touching her, Mr. (Warren, Troubled, Energetic) shouts to the others that the (delightful, clear, Tories) are coming and that they should (than, education, leave) the house. He leaves the trunk (loud, page, lid) open.

Katie comes out of the (stamp, trunk, sat) and begins to cry. Her family (school, runs, earth) inside. Her mother hugs her but (careful, end, is) angry that she ran back into (the, cute, forgot) house. Katie knows that Mr. Warren (school, table, called) the others away to keep her (ugly, sharp, safe), leaving the lid open for her (to, enormously, carefully) breathe. She believes that there is (still, science, invention) some goodness in her neighbors, even (with, lively, surround) the war beginning.
